

Location:

Okeana, OH

For Availability Contact:

Douglas D. Tolen
AAC Consulting Group, Inc.
Phone (407) 359-1576
Fax (407) 359-1576
E-mail dtolen@worldramp.net
Web: <http://www.aacgroup.com>

Richard Dees

Education 1960 - 1964 Wisconsin State University, Stevens Point, Wis
Major: Conservation/Ecology Minor: Biology Degree: B.S.

Professional 1964 - 1995 U.S. Food and Drug Administration experience Cincinnati, Ohio Investigator
 Indianapolis, Indiana Investigator
 Chicago, Illinois Investigator/Recall Monitor
 Milwaukee, Wisconsin Supervisory Investigator
 San Diego, California Supervisory Investigator
 Terminal Island, California Supervisory Investigator
 Rockville, Maryland Director, Investigations Branch
 Washington, D.C. Director, Division of Policy and Enforcement
 Programs in FDA's Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition.

While in Rockville was temporarily assigned to FDA's Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition to participate in evaluation of the Agency pesticide residue monitoring programs and propose appropriate modifications. Lecturer at FDA course on Food Microbiology.

While in Washington, D.C. was on U.S. delegations to two Codex committees. Reviewer and commenter on documents under development in several other Codex committees.

1995 - 2000 Consultant to food and pharmaceutical industries
HACCP course instructor India, Philippines, Indonesia, Sri Lanka, Malaysia, Bangladesh, Nepal, China and U.S.
Sanitation, GMP and GAP presentations during those courses.
Assisted firms in preparing HACCP plans and conducted audits of HACCP plans and their implementation.
Worked with government of middleEastern country to modify their food codes to follow Codex standards and also worked with them to modify their food import and export controls to bring them into compliance with GATT commitments.

Professional Central Atlantic States Association of the Association of Food and Drug memberships Officials (AFDO)

