

Rocco Moschetti

Experience

1997-Present IPM of Alaska Wasilla, Alaska
Owner, CEO

- Crop Management Programs.
- greenhouse and field crop inspections.
- IPM monitoring and scouting.

1995- 1997 University of Alaska Fairbanks, Cooperative
Extension Service Palmer, Alaska
Agriculture Resources Agent

- IPM Technician.
- Program Assistant.
- Decimated agriculture related information to general public, growers and producers.
- Inspected farms, greenhouses, and field crops for insects and diseases.
- Provided growers with crop management advice.

1994- 1995 Landscape Supply Corp. Wasilla, Alaska
Greenhouse IPM Technician

- Greenhouse crop management.
- pesticide applications .
- provided agricultural safety training.

1993 - 1994 52nd Combat Engineer Battalion. U.S. Army
Reserves. Active Duty

- Operation Desert Storm.
- Protected American interests.

1988 - 1992 USDA Animal Plant Health Inspection Service
Sacramento, CA
Visalia District Assistant

- Protected Agriculture in San Jouquin Valley.

Education 1984 - 1988 Eastern New Mexico University Portales N.M.
▪ Bachelor of Science. Biology.

Publications and/or 2000 Greenhouse Product News Publication
Seminars/Courses ▪ "Battling pests for crop supremacy in the Far North".

1996 Agriculture Research Review Publication
▪ "IPM Techniques for control of stinging insects".

Additional Professional Activities Greenhouse Biological Control Specialist.

Professional Memberships 2000 Member. Alaska Farmers Union.

Languages English (primary).
Spanish (secondary).

References Rhonda Williams. Wasilla, Alaska. (907)373-0925
Wayne Vandre. Anchorage, Alaska (907)344-1028
Diana Miller. Palmer, Alaska (907)745-7514